

PIVOTAL

systems

Lisa Potter is the Managing Director of Pivotal Systems, providing strategic planning, business plan implementation and business governance and systems Improvement services to commercial and non-profit service based businesses.

Lisa has had eight years of executive management, strategic planning, systems development and financial management in the not-profit sector, most recently as CEO of Perth NRM for five years and largely in the community services area prior to NRM.

She has thirteen years financial and executive management, process improvement and strategic development in the real estate sector in NSW, ACT and WA, and a further seven years business, financial and administrative management in the corporate sector.

Lisa has volunteered her time for small and large organisations on various committees over the years including Chairperson of Eurobodalla Community Housing, Secretary & Treasurer for the Turnaround Centre WA, Chairperson for the REINSW South Coast Division and Committee Member for the REINSW Constitutional Review Panel.

She is currently an Associate Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management WA, a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a Committee Member of the Edith Cowen University Joint Sciences Course Consultative Committee.