

The Last Stand

1st-5th September 2021 Moora

A 5 day environmental awareness event highlighting the wonders and woes of the Trees of WA Wheatbelt wildflower country

1st September: Symposium & dinner

Speakers:

MC: Michelle Stanley (ABC Geraldton)

Fred Mogridge (Yued Elder) “Living on Yued boodja”

Malcolm French (Ecologist) “Trees are a promise to the future”

Andrea Gaynor (UWA) - “Wheatbelt history - what happened?”

Carmen Lawrence - (Conservation Council) “Healthy Nature , healthy people”

Kingsley Dixon - (Curtin/King Park) “Disappearing Wheatbelt woodland biodiversity”

David Bowran (Scientist/thinker) “Changing climate, changing wheatbelt farming”

Mike Griffiths (Landcarer) “A journey through Wheatbelt ecology”

Roz Hart (Fungimap) “Mapping Wheatbelt fungi”

Mike Bamford (Birdlife) “The Wheatbelt; can we achieve balance between sustainable production, conservation and lifestyle?”

John Kinsella (Poet) “In the Woodlands” virtual reading

When: Wednesday 1st September 2021

Where: Moora Performing Arts Centre, Padbury St, Moora

Time: Registration 9:15am. Start 9:45am - 5pm. Catering provided.

RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/the-last-stand-symposium-tickets-150451012027>

Contact Moore Catchment Council moorecc@bigpond.com or 9653 1355 for more info

Social dinner - anyone welcome!

Special guest speaker:

Simon Cherriman - Where Eagles Dare

When: 1st Sep

Where: Moora Bowling Club, Gardiner Street

Time: 6:45pm - 10pm

Tickets: $45 each for 2 course meal catered by Bowling club. Bar available - card/cash.

RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/the-last-stand-symposium-tickets-150451012027> or pay on door

The Last Stand 2 is being organised by Moore Catchment Council and several local volunteer Landcare legends. We thank everyone who has given their time to make this event happen.

Sponsors

natural resource management program

